Collect of the Day

God be with you. And also with you. Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Faith Story seated Hugh Golub

This morning we continue our series of Faith Stories shared by members of the St. Columba's community. Each of us has a unique faith journey. Faith Stories are a way to share this journey and hear God speak through one another.

Reading Isaiah 6:1-10

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Holy One sitting on a throne, high and exalted; and the trailing edges, as of God's garment, filled the temple. Seraphs stood attending God—six wings!—each had six wings! With two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their groins, and with two they flew. And this one called to that one and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Marshall of heaven's armies; the whole earth is full of God's glory." The doorposts of the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house was filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am wrecked, for I am a person of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the Sovereign, the Commander of the heaven's vanguard!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, and in its hand a hot coal that with tongs had been taken from upon the altar. It touched my mouth with it and said: "Look! Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has turned aside and your sin atoned." Then I heard the voice of the Thundering God saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!" And God said, "Go and say to this people: 'Listen well, but do not comprehend; Look well, but do not understand.' Close off the heart of this people, and stop their ears, and blind their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed."

For the Word of God in scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:33-40

Rawen Harbor (b. 1947)

The People sing the antiphon after it has been introduced by the choir, and where indicated in the text.

God, send out your spir - it!_____ God, send out your spir - it!_____

God, send out your spir - it! And re - new the face of the earth.

Make known to me, HOLY ONE, the way of your statutes,
and I will observe it to the end.

Grant me understanding and I shall safeguard your teaching and shall observe it with my whole heart. Antiphon

Lead me in the path of your commandments,
for in it I delight.

Turn my heart to your decrees,
and not to unjust gain.

Avert my eyes from seeing falsity;
in your ways give me life. Antiphon

Establish to your slave your promise,
which is for those who revere you.

Avert the disgrace that I fear,
for your ordinances are good.

Look! I have longed for your precepts;
in your righteousness grant me life. Antiphon

The Gospel Mark 4:1-20

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

And again Jesus began to teach beside the sea and there gathered around him such a large crowd of women, children, and men that he boarded a boat sitting there on the sea while the whole crowd was beside the sea on the land. And he taught them much in parables, and then in his teaching he said to them: "Listen up! Look, a sower went out to sow. And as the sower sowed, some fell on the path and birds came and devoured. And the other fell on the rocky ground where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up because it did not have deep soil. Now when the sun rose, it was scorched and since it had no root, it withered. And other seed fell among thorns and the thorns grew up and choked it and it produced no grain. Other seed fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and producing thirty and sixty and a hundredfold." Then Jesus said, "Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

Now when Jesus was alone, those women and men who were around him along with the twelve asked him about the parables. And he said to them, "To you has been given the mystery of the majesty of God, but for those outside, everything comes in parables; in order that they: 'Look well, but do not understand, listen well, but do not comprehend; so that they may not turn again and be forgiven.'"

Then Jesus said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the [rest of the] parables? The sower sows the word. These are on the path where the word is sown; when they hear immediately Satan comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. And these are on rocky ground; when they hear the word, they immediately with joy receive it. Yet they have no root in them and endure only for a while; then, when there is affliction or persecution on account of the word, immediately they stumble. And those sown among the thorns; these are the ones who hear the word, and the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word and it becomes fruitless. And these are sown on the good soil: they hear the word and receive it and bear fruit, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All repeat the sung Alleluia.

The Great Thanksgiving

God is here. Her Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them unto God.

Let us give thanks to our Sovereign God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, O God, our light and our salvation; to you be glory and praise for ever. From the beginning you have created all things, and all your works echo the silent music of your praise. In the fullness of time you made us in your image, the crown of all creation. You give us breath and speech, that with angels and archangels and all the powers of heaven we may find a voice to sing your praise:

Sanctus and Benedictus sung by all

Holy, holy, holy

Leon Roberts

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is the One who comes in the Lord's name, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is the One who comes in the Lord's name, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

How wonderful is the work of your hands, O God. As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own. When they turned away and rebelled, your gaze remained steadfast. From them you raised up Jesus to be our Savior, born of Mary, to be the living bread, in whom all our hungers are satisfied. He offered his life for sinners, and with a love stronger than death, he opened wide his arms on the cross.

On the night before he died, he came to supper with his friends, and, taking bread, he gave you thanks. He broke it and gave it to them, saying: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine, he gave thanks, and said: "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Remembering his life, death, and resurrection, we present to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon them that they may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son, holy food and drink of new and unending life. Form us in the likeness of Christ, and build us into a living temple to your glory.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ by whom, with whom, and in whom, with all who stand before you on earth and in heaven, we worship you in songs of everlasting praise:

Blessing and honor and glory and power be yours for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The bread is broken and silence observed.

Liturgical Note

During the Season after Epiphany, St. Columba's is engaging A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, compiled and translated by the Rev. Dr. Wilda C. Gafney. This series is often short-handed as "Year W" for woman and womanist. Womanism is a movement of Black Women that recognizes the intersections of gender, race, and class.

Throughout the season, we will hear feminine characterization of God, and we'll engage the women of the Bible anew. This is an experiment that allows us to notice how stories and names for God impact our connection to God and to one another. Listen for what comforts and challenges you, for what encourages or confuses you. A Women's Lectionary gives the opportunity to be curious and to notice.

Names of God included in Opening Prayers and Prayers of the People also come from resources by the Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

Land Acknowledgement

We give thanks that we meet today on the traditional land of the first people of Nacotchtank, who had been its custodians for thousands of years, caring for and nurturing it. We pray for all who live on this land and pay our respects to the native leaders past, present, and emerging.
