Opening Acclamation and Collect for Purity

Come, Holy Spirit.

Make all things new. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Glory to God

Paul M. Vasile

Glo-ry to God, whose good-ness shines on me, and to the Son, whose grace has par-doned me, and to the Spir-it, whose love has set me free. As it was in the be-gin-ning, is now and ev-er shall be. A-men.

— Text: Trad. liturgical text; adapt. Paul M. Vasile

Collect of the Day

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most loving rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reading seated 2 Samuel 23:1-7

These are the last words of David: The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel: The spirit of the LORD speaks through me, his word is upon my tongue. The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God, is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land. Is not my house like this with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire? But the godless are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be picked up with the hand; to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear. And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.

For the Word of God in scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 93

Marty Haugen (b. 1950)

The People sing the antiphon with the Choir where indicated in the text.

God is Sovereign, clothed in splendid apparel; *

God is robed in majesty and is girded with strength.

God has made the whole world so sure * that it cannot be moved;

Ever since the world began, your throne has been established; *

you are from everlasting. Antiphon

The waters have lifted up, O God, the waters have lifted up their voice; *

the waters have lifted up their pounding waves.

Mightier than the sound of many waters, mightier than the breakers of the sea, * mightier is the Holy One who dwells on high.

Your testimonies are very sure, *

and holiness adorns your house, O God, for ever and for evermore. Antiphon

Gospel Alleluia standing as you are able

James Walsh (b. 1940)

The Gospel John 18:33-37

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Judeans?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Judean, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Judeans. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All repeat the sung Alleluia.

Sermon The Rev. Ledlie I. Laughlin

A period of silence will be observed after the sermon.

The Nicene Creed standing as you are able

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Silence may be kept.

Intercessor Living God, you have created all that is. Send forth your Spirit to renew and restore us, that we may proclaim your good news in all that we do. Holy Spirit, hear our prayer, and let our cry come to you.

We pray for a spirit of joy in the church. We pray for the spirit of peace in the world, that all peoples may live in harmony. We pray for the spirit of justice for the needy, that oppression may end and victims of violence, racism, and exploitation be made whole. Holy Spirit, hear our prayer, and let our cry come to you.

We pray for the spirit of healing for all who are ill or in need among us, especially . . . Friends, who else needs our prayers today? Please add your petitions, aloud or in silence. Holy Spirit, hear our prayer, and let our cry come to you.

We pray for the spirit of hope in the future, that we may be united with all who have died, especially . . . Please add your petitions, aloud or in silence. Holy Spirit, hear our prayer, and let our cry come to you.

We give you thanks for all the blessings of this life, especially . . . Please add your petitions, aloud or in silence. Holy Spirit, hear our prayer, and let our cry come to you.

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace The Presider says to the People

The peace of Christ be always with you. And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of Jesus Christ.

Anthem

To the glory of our King
The Children's, Gallery, and Celtic Choirs

Robert Leaf (1936–2005)

To the glory of our King, we will joyful praises sing.
Let the sound of voices ring, bringing praise to Christ the King.

To the glory of our Lord, all unite with one accord.
He alone will be adored, let us ever love the Lord.

All who give to God their praise, all who seek His dwelling place, all who will His Word embrace, look to God for truth and grace.

To the glory of our King, we will joyful praises sing.
Let the sound of voices ring, Alleluia! Bringing praise to Christ the King.

—Text: Robert Leaf

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward and blessed.

The Great Thanksgiving

God be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to God.

Let us give thanks to our Sovereign God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you, God of many names, whose Spirit runs freely throughout the earth, whose image lies deep in every mortal soul.

In your grace your Word is made known to all people, calling forth the best they have to offer; your Beloved is immersed in the waters of creation, healing the chaos that floods our world; your Son is the guest who offers new wine and warms hearts grown cold and withered.

Therefore, we celebrate the rays of morning light that bathe the world in glory and kindle a new song:

Sanctus and Benedictus sung by all Mass of Plenty

Ray Glover (1928–2017)

Ho - ly, — ho - ly, — ho - ly Lord, — God — of pow - er and might, — 1. Heav - en and earth, — heav - en and earth — are
2. Blessed is the one — blessed is the one — who full of your glo - ry. — Chorus: Ho - san - na — in — the comes in the name of the Lord. —
high - est, ho - san - na — in — the high - est. —

Repeat the chorus after the second verse.

We ask that your Holy Spirit fall upon us and upon these gifts, that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our Lord and brother, Jesus Christ.

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom. He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said: "Take, eat: This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup of wine, saying: "Drink this, all of you: This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all that words can hold. And so we proclaim the great mystery of faith, saying:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

With these gifts we are filled with the life-giving presence of Christ; we proclaim him as creation's host, transforming poverty into plenty in the reckless generosity of love. Inspire us with the hope that one day death and greed will be no more, and people without number will come from east and west, north and south to share a feast of abundance. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Savior, by whom and with whom and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be yours, Mother of blessings, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

We alternate seasonally between the traditional and contemporary versions of the Lord's Prayer.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The bread is broken and silence observed.

Fraction Anthem

Let us be bread

Thomas Porter (b. 1958)

The People sing the refrain with the Choir and where indicated in the text.

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, bro-ken and shared, life for the world.

Let us be wine, love free-ly poured. Let us be one in the Lord.

I am the bread of life, broken for all. Eat now and hunger no more. Refrain —Text: Thomas Porter

Invitation to Communion

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome at Christ's table.

Communion

Christ welcomes all to communion. ■ When you come to the altar a paper cup will be put in your hand. Inside the paper cup is a consecrated wafer. Please consume the bread. After taking the bread out, the cup becomes a vessel for the wine. Please deposit the paper cup into one of the baskets nearby so that it can be reverently disposed of. ■ Respond to communion by saying "Amen." ■ If you prefer a blessing, cross your hands over your chest. ■ Gluten-free wafers are available at each communion station. ■ Baptism is offered several times a year; speak to a priest to learn more.

Anthem

Lord, we give thanks
The Gallery and Celtic Choirs

Mark Patterson (b. 1969)

Lord, we give thanks to you this day; thanks for the blessings you give us.
Lord, we give thanks to you this day, alleluia! Lord, we give thanks.

Lord, we sing praise to you this day, praise for the gifts of creation.
Lord, we sing praise to you this day, alleluia! Lord, we give thanks.

Lord, we lift up our voices to sing a grateful song of praise.
Lord, we come now before you that we may glorify your name.

Lord, we give thanks to you this day; thanks for the blessings you give us.
Lord, we give thanks to you this day, alleluia! Lord, we give thanks. We give thanks.

—Text: Mark Patterson

Hymn 324

Let all mortal flesh keep silence

Picardy

Prayer after Communion standing as you are able Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Ministers when scheduled

In the name of St. Columba's we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that N. may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

We who are many are one body, as we all share one bread, one cup.

Blessing

The People respond Amen.

Hymn 544

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun

Duke Street

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
