

Assistant Director of music job description

Deadline to apply: 5/4/2026

Salary range: $60,000-$70,000 commensurate with job experience

St. Columba's is a warm, welcoming place where music is an integral part of both worship and community life. The church has a long tradition of musical excellence which continues today in their choirs for all ages and skill levels, handbell ensembles for youth and adults, and chamber music offerings. They are seeking a full-time Assistant Director of Music to work and collaborate with the Director of Music Ministries in the leadership of this vibrant music program.

This position shares in the service music playing (organ and piano); serves as the principal accompanist for our adult, children's, and youth choirs; assists in the direction and skill building of our children's and youth choirs; provides a healthy vocal model for our singers; leads worship and rehearsals in the absence of the Director of Music Ministries; assists with the administrative load involved in managing a large music program; and collaborates on ideas to expand and enhance our musical offerings.

Qualifications: Bachelor's degree (minimum) in music; proficiency in organ and piano, choral conducting, and group vocal techniques; strong interpersonal skills;

Compensation: This is a salaried position with benefits (health insurance, retirement contribution, vacation, and continuing education/professional development). Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Candidates should submit a cover letter detailing interest and qualifications, a resume, and names and contact information of two professional references.
